

Washington, April 22--Following the seizure of Vera Cruz, the United States will wait for Huerta to make the expected declaration of war before proceeding further, unless a massacre of American citizens at Mexico City should cause an immediate forced march.

Senor Algara, Mexican charge here, will demand his passport tonight, and it is expected that American Charge O'Shaughnessy will be withdrawn from Mexico City at the same time. The fact that no word has been received from O'Shaughnessy since Monday caused alarm here today.

President Wilson this afternoon signed the joint resolution justifying him in using the army in Mexico. The president's measure was to be finally adopted by the Senate early and then concurred in by the House. In a speech to congress this afternoon, the president asked a $500,000 appropriation for bringing Americans out of Mexico.

ANOTHER FLEET GETS ORDERS

Boston, Mass.--The third division of the Atlantic fleet which is here, received orders today to sail for Mexico Saturday.

Washington, D. C.--Rumors that American Charge d'affairs Shaughnessy had been assassinated at Mexico City led Sec. Bryan to admit this afternoon that he had not heard from O'Shaughnessy since Monday, but officials discredited the rumor.

JAPAN WILL BE NEUTRAL.

Washington, D. C. 3 p. m.--The Japanese have issued an official statement today declaring they would remain neutral.

El Paso, Tex.--Gen. Villa has arrived at Juarez, with a large escort of troops. It is believed he was sent here by Gen'l Carranza to prevent Constitutionalists from becoming involved.

SAM LEHRMAN

Has proven himself to be the man who can be fully relied upon aced by the continued advance of his enemies from the north, was bent upon making trouble with the United States in the hope of uniting the warring Mexican factions in a common cause. Officials here, however, did not expect that the constitutionalists with whom the United States has no quarrel, would be concerned in the quarrel with Huerta.

PLANS OF PRESIDENT

Seizure of Vera Cruz and Tampico, of the Mexican Warships in those waters and of a section of the railroad from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico as far as a trestle twenty miles west of Vera Cruz and a pacific blockade are features of a plan of action President Wilson has outlined to his closest adviser.

Such a course, authorities on international law describe as one "short of war," and yet not an act of war. Huerta might, however, construe it as one.

Washington, D. C., April 21.--All foreign ambassadors at Washington were summoned into conference with Secretary of State Bryan this afternoon in order that they might be informed of the steps which the United States is taking in dealing with the Mexican crisis.

This followed closely after the issuance of orders to rear admiral Fletcher at Veracruz to seize that port in order to forestall receipt by the Mexican federal government of 200 field guns and several million rounds of ammunition en route to Veracruz on board a German steamer. No intimation was given out as to events in the conference with the ambassadors.

Meanwhile a warm debate was in progress in the senate on the resolution authorizing the president to use armed forces of the United States to obtain reparation for indignities inflicted on the American government. Senator Lodge said he was unable to distinguish between Huerta and Villa both of whom were characterized as "murderers."

Senator Shively advocated adoption of the pending resolutions. Charge O'Shaughnessy, at the direction of the state department, has advised the foreign diplomatic body in Mexico City to have their nationals leave Mexico.

At 3:20 o'clock Secretary Daniels said he had "no word" of developments in Veracruz. Official circles, without comment, heard a report that marines had landed and taken possession of the customs house. It was said admiral Fletcher's orders were to land no men until the shipment of munitions had been landed.
